STANDARD B & P "NOISEAR"

This year the Buffalo Busy Bees 4-H club was handicaped by lack of sufficient amount of active members. Our aim for next year is to double our 4-H membership. Our club has had 11 regular and three special meetings.

We were very fortunate to get Mrs. Ray Holdorf to consent to being our assistant leader.

On October 29 we held a Halloween Party at the home of our leader, Mrs. Hamerlinck, eight members attended and it is a time that we will never forget.

On October 18, 1955 all the girls who exhibited at the Mississippi Valley Fair were entertained by the Chamber of Commerce at the 10th annual Farm Youth Banquet. A very nice supper was served and we enjoyed the program that was put on by 4-H club members.

On November 21, the Organization Training School was held at the Lend A Hand Club and attended by both leaders. The following week we held our program planning meeting for the year. The program which we planned was planned with younger girls in mind. It has been followed pretty well throughtout the year.

At our November meeting it was decided we buy a camera for the club to use.

At our regular December meeting we held our annual Christmas Party. Gifts were exchanged and games were played before a very nice lunch was served.

STANDARD B & P "NOISEAR"

January 25, 1956, the Buffalo Boys and girls 4-H clubs met to discuss plans for the Blue Grass Community Fair held at the Blue Grass Community Hall on March 2 and 3, 1956. Together we made $27.30 by throwing wet sponges at the Boys who were standing behind a canvas. You can imagine the fun we had taking out our spite.

On February 8, 1956, a recreation training school was held at the Lend A Hand Club. Unfortunately no one from our club could attend.

February 1st and March 28th a subject matter training schools were held at the Lend A Hand Club to which both leaders were able to attend.

March 1st a music training school was held at the Lend A Hand Club. Carol Holdorf and Dorothy Brus attended March 6th the Buffalo township Farm Bureau held a card party for the benefit of the Buffalo Boys and girls 4-H Club. We solicited some prizes and pies and each club was given $76.61 as their share of the proceeds.

On April 11, the County-wide Mother-Daughter Banquet was held at Johnny Hartman's Restaurant. It was attended by eleven girls and their mothers.

In May we held an all day meeting at which the girls prepared a complete dinner. It was very tasty and enjoyable.

Rally Day was held at the Bettendorf High School on June 19th. It was the duty of our club to decorate the stage and to help backstage. We used pink Carnations and blue Larkspur to gether in large white baskets. As stage decorations and Dorothy Brus and Mary Steffen had a great time seeing what happens behind the scenes.

We were very unfortunate not to have any girls old enough to attend State Convention or State Camp, but hope that we will in years to come.

We held our achievement show on August 3rd at the Blue Grass Legion Hall. Mrs. McCleary and Mrs. Jugenhiemer judged our exhibits and we have 27 exhibits to go to the Mississippi Valley Fair. In the evening we had a program in conjunction with the Buffalo Township Farm Bureau. Mary Steffen was announcer for the program. Carolyn Sulentic led the pledge of allegiance and asked the audience to join in singing "America".

Dorothy Brus played an accordian solo. Judy Wigglesworth sang a solo, accompanied by her mother. Carol Holdorf recited the Country Girl's Creed and Carolyn Sulentic led the 4-H pledge. There were also numbers by some 4-H boys and some prospective members.

At the regular August meeting Dorothy Brus and Mary Steffen were presented with 4-H bracelets for their perfect attendance and outstanding work.

Buffalo Busy Bees

The regular meeting of the Buffalo Busy Bees 4-H club was held at the home of Janet Stoffers Friday, Dec. 16. Roll call was answered by 10 girls.

The program books for the following year were given to the girls. We had our Christmas party. Games were played and enjoyed. We had gift exchange. The next meeting will be held at the home of Janice Atkins on Jan. 21. Our guest for the next meeting will be Mrs. Reed. — Dorothy Brus, reporter.

Buffalo Busy Bees

The Buffalo Busy Bees met with Janice Atkins on Jan. 21. The roll call was answered by, "One new food I'm trying to eat this year." We had seven members and one guest present and the two leaders.

The club donated $5 to the IFYE and $3 to the state 4-H camp.

Judy Wigglesworth gave a talk, "The important food nutrients in each group of the basic seven." An illustrative talk, "Booby traps for weight watchers," was given by Carol Holdorf. Another illustrative talk was given by Dorothy Brus, called "Cook's vocabulary." Games were played.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Dorothy Brus on Feb. 18.—Reporter, Dorothy Brus.

Iowa Girls State Officers

Elected to state office at the 27th annual 4-H Girl's club convention, were, left to right, Martha Glenn, Mitchellville, president; Antoinette Tiarks, Council Bluffs, vice president; Sandra Floy, Thornton, secretary-treasurer; and Connie Peck, Winthrop, historian. The 4-day convention, held on the Iowa State college campus, will conclude today.

Organize 4-H Girls' County Committee

At a business meeting after the training school on Nov. 30, the county 4-H girls' committee has organized for the coming year: Mrs. Ben Litscher, chairman, Lincoln; Mrs. Harry Moeller, secretary, Sheridan; Mrs. Harold Jugenhemier, music chairman, Blue Grass; Mrs. Clarence Dietac, health chairman, Davenport City.

District committeewomen are: Mrs. E. L. McCleary, Blue Grass, Rockingham and Buffalo; Mrs. Leroy Orndorf, Liberty, Allen's Grove, Cleona; Mrs. Otto Wendhusen, LeClaire, Princeton, Pleasant Valley, Davenport; Mrs. L. W. Kuehl, Sheridan, Winfield, Lincoln and Butler.

The next committee meeting will be Monday, Dec. 12, at Mrs. Alfred Spies' home at 12:30 p.m.

4-H Girls' Leaders At Training School

All 4-H girls' clubs were represented at the first food and nutrition training school which was given by Mrs. Lettie Zuber, county extension home economist, at the Lend-A-Hand on Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Mrs. Margaret Morris of the Quad City Dairy Council talked on good nutrition. Mrs. Morris had an interesting exhibit on the good energy given by various numbers of cubes of sugar and other foods given the same amount of energy. For instance a half of a large sweet potato has as many calories (140) as 7 cubes of sugar. One cube of sugar has the same calories as one marshmallow, 4 pieces of celery, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup broccoli, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup green beans, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cooked carrots and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cooked cabbage.

Another interesting exhibit was the amount of food that had to be eaten to get the same amount of calcium as in 4 cups of milk. It takes 27 pounds of potatoes or $7\frac{1}{4}$ pounds of carrots.

In the afternoon place settings were arranged and comments made. Foods were also prepared for breakfast which were: Orange upside down biscuits, orange toast, eggs baked with cheese sauce and ham with cream of potato sauce.

The second training school for 4-H leaders will be on Wednesday, Feb. 1, at the Lend-A-Hand.

400 Attend Girls' 4-H Rally Day

Despite the unusually hot weather, 400 4-H girls, leaders, mothers and friends attended Rally day at the Bettendorf high school on June 19.

Lila McConnell, county 4-H girls' president, presided at the afternoon program. At the annual business meeting, it was decided to buy a flagpole for the 4-H flag.

4-H leaders and committeewomen were presented with memo pads by the Allens Grove Tri Mu girls.

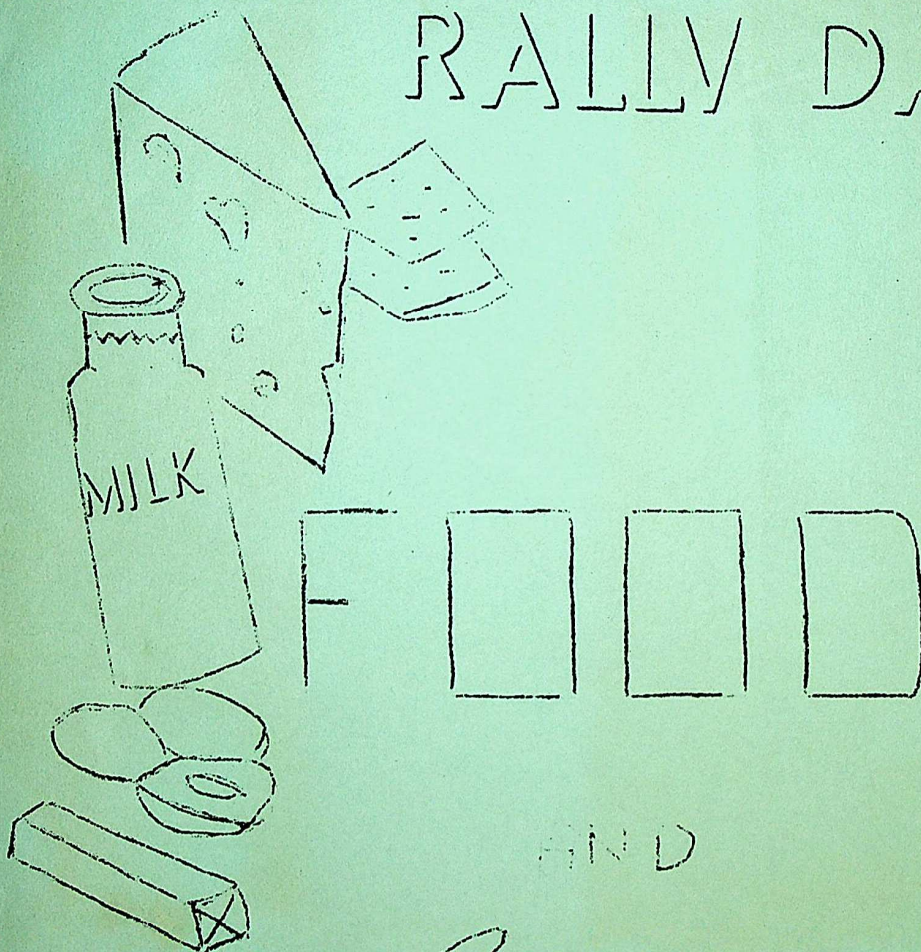

The Winfield Wo-He-Lo initiated Mrs. F. L. McCleary of the committee and Mrs. Ray Baetke, Butler Wide Awakes club leader, as honorary 4-H members. They were presented the honorary member's pin.

The Liberty Bell Ringers had the graduation ceremony for Luanne Drumm, Butler Wide Awakes; Shirley Oelerich, Lincoln Go-Getters; Beverly Dannatt, Princeton Live Wires; and Shirley Schneckloth, Sheridan Hustlers. The girls were presented with teaspoons with the initial 4-H on the handle of the spoon.

Delores Chapman and Elizabeth Clagg, of the State Dairy Council, in their talks stressed the importance of wise food choice of snacks and that milk is the best choice of snack and should be included in every meal for young and old.

The Blue Grass Sunshine Workers closed the program with a skit, "Living The 4-H Pledge." In the skit, the 4-H story was told to a foreign person.

4-H Leaders Attend Recognition Meeting

The Scott County 4-H leaders who attended the state 4-H leaders recognition program at Iowa State College on January 31st were inspired to be more effective in their jobs.

Representatives from the county were Mrs. Ruby Kluever, leader of the Hickory Grove Blue Belles; Mrs. Ben Litscher, girls county 4-H Committee woman; Ted Porstmann, leader of the Buffalo Jr. Master Farmers; and Harold Wilson, boys 4-H County Committee member.

"Vision for Volunteers" was the theme of the meeting. It was developed by three speakers who made major talks during the day. Dr. James H. Hilton, president of Iowa State College, speaking at the dinner meeting, told the leaders that we are standing on the threshold of a new revolution in progress that will rival the so-called industrial revolution of the past three decades.

He reminded his audience that the young people who are now of the age of 4-H members will be the ones who will control the developments of the immediate future and that the kind of job they do will be determined by the kind of training they get now and in the immediate future.

Dr. Hilton stressed the responsibilities of the Iowa State College in meeting the demands of Iowa people for educational opportunities. He told his listeners: "This institution belongs to the people of Iowa. Plans are made for it and courses are charted to meet the needs of the people of Iowa."

"I hope," he said "that by working together we can get the support needed to keep this college sensitive to the changing needs of the times."

More than 500 leaders attended the dinner. It was provided by the Iowa Chain Store Council. Funds were provided by the council for doughnuts and coffee which were served as the leaders arrived at the college for the opening session.

Kenneth L. Anderson, associate director of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, of Chicago, reviewed the progress that has been made in developing the 4-H program when he spoke at the morning session. He pointed out that the basic concept for this type of youth work has now spread to 50 other countries. Of the more than 17 million persons who have been 4-H members at least half have moved to the nation's towns and cities, Anderson said, when he emphasized that both urban and rural communities have a vital interest in the 4-H movement.

He told the leaders that they are truly the doers and builders of young people. At the same time he stressed that 4-H can't rest on its laurels. He challenged the group to enroll more members, to develop the kind of a program that will keep young people enrolled for more years and to develop a program fully geared to the interests and needs of young people. Anderson also urged the leaders to do a better job of interpreting 4-H to the community and to work harder to increase parent cooperation.

AUDIENCE SING

Some Folks Do

Some Folks like to sigh
Some Folks do, Some Folks do.
Some Folks long to die.
But that's not I nor you.

Refrain:

Long live the merry, merry heart
That laughs by night and day;
Like the queen of mirth,
No matter what some folks say.

Some folks fear to smile,
Some Folks do, Some Folks do.
Others laugh through guile,
But that's not I nor you.

Refrain

Some folks fret and scold
Some Folks do, Some Folks do.
Others hearts are cold,
But that's not I nor you.

Refrain

Some folks get gray hairs,
Some folks do, Some Folks do
Brooding o'er their cares,
But that's not I nor you

Buffalo Busy Bees Hold Meeting

"The Meeting will please come to order!" was the request made by Mary Reck last Saturday, February 21st. Yes, the Buffalo Busy Bees were meeting again, this time at the home of Jo Ellen and Rosemary Dodds. In spite of cold winds, 13 members answered roll call. "Time-savers For Room Care" was the roll call this time. The secretary's report was approved as read by Louella Schaefer. After much discussion, the girls decided to have a bowling party at the Midway Bowling Alley, March 1. Janet Miller moved the meeting be adjourned.

Lynn Ann Beckman gave a talk entitled "Fire Hazards in the Home." Vermeer's painting "A Woman Weighing Gold" was carefully studied. Martha Keith and Jean Thompson were initiated into the club as new members.

As a result of Mrs. Hammerlinck's suggestion that 4-H girls take part in Farm Bureau Meeting, Jean Geriscer volunteered to lead in community singing at the next meeting. Watch out, members, Janet Miller and Ann Keith are in on this too. They're going to give pantomime they made up themselves, and it promises to be funny.

Miss Tarr Holds Meeting

Miss Marguehita Tarr, Extension Landscape specialist conducted a county wide training school for all 4-H girls and boys 4-H club leaders, Friday, December 5th at the Lend-A-Hand Club in Davenport.

Miss Tarr suggested that the 4-H members make a map of their farmstead and present it to their families for Christmas. She then suggested how they might make the drawing of their plans and how they wanted their grounds. Several ideas from each member might be studied to make the final plan. Little by little things can be done, all cannot be done in a year.

The group enjoyed a hike with Miss Tarr following the meeting. This hike gave the leaders first hand knowledge of good and bad plantings at some of the homes.

The girls and boys met together following the business meeting. The county officers presented a skit on a record book. Humorous programs and stories were read by Gary Holst, Don Keppy, Leroy Paustian and Arline Brix. A special demonstration was presented by Carol McConnell and Betty Lively, who made everyone laugh at their appearance and doing everything wrong. Pictures were shown illustrating Club activities. About 400 attended the program.

4-H GIRLS ENJOY TOUR

Seventy-two girls, Mothers and leaders enjoyed the educational tour to Chicago Friday and Saturday, November 28th and November 29th. When asked what they liked best some of the girls said that they enjoyed going thru the DC-C large airliner at the airport. The girls got to see the family cabin, the drawing room and the kitchen, cloak room and cockpit of the 58 passenger plane. The cockpit was covered with buttons and dials over the entire ceiling and front. The floor had numerous pedals. Radio and radar systems extended back beyond the cockpit.

The girls then visited the Museum of Science and Industry. Colleen Moore's doll house was enjoyed by all of the girls. The Christmas trees of the different nations were just being decorated but several were complete. The girls also visited the farm at the Museum, streets of yesteryear, plastics and then saw themselves on television.

The girls boarded the elevated train near the museum and from the squeals of delight this was much enjoyed. The elevated train then goes into the subway and this took them to the door of Marshall Fields.

The girls were divided into squads of 7 girls per leader and these girls were taken thru the stores together to enjoy the Christmas decorations.

That evening the girls enjoyed a Musical Comedy. Alberta Porter and Marian Fahrenkrog went back stage and had their programs autographed by Joan Blondell.

The experience of staying in a hotel was new to some of the girls.

The following morning the girls were taken on a tour of the Naval Armory and the U. S. S. Daniel A Day destroyer escort. The girls were shown the various guns and gunnery stations, how the ship is navigated and controlled, the sleeping quarters, sick bay, kitchens on galley, and dining rooms. They were shown four decks. The girls felt that they know a little more about what is expected of the boys in the Navy.

Quite a contrast to the gray destroyer escort was the Mum show at Garfield Park. The mums were in all of their glory as well as the begoonias and orchids. However, the travelers tree came into its share of glory for the girls. Its a species of tropical palm. One long leaf and stem when cut will yield about a quart of water even in the direst weather for the thirsty traveler.

The International livestock exposition was next visited by the girls who got to see some Iowa 4-H calves place 2nd in a group of 3, Linn County calf placed first, Clinton 2nd and Cedar 3rd.

The climax of the trip came with dinner with all the trimmings at the Old Spinning Wheel. The girls saw the antique doll collection and old china.

These tired but happy girls and leaders returned Saturday evening: Mrs. Arthur Schaeffer, Ida Schaeffer, Dona Schaeffer, Mrs. Harold Jugenheimer, Marilyn Jugenheimer, Mrs. Alvin Kay, Joanne Kay, Sandra Kay, Marian Fahrenkrog, Ruth Geest, Darlene Pietzanka, Mrs. Helmuth Schaeffer, Joan Schaeffer, Beverly Holdorf, Doris Kardel, Karen Westerhoff, Phyllis Brus, Elaine Roggenkamp, Dorothy Hoffman, Dorothe Quistorf, Mrs. Carl Spring, Connie Spring, Patty Fennimore, Dona Siebert, Marilyn Siemsen, Virlee Lund, Mary Greve, Alberta Porter, Nancy Moeller, Virginia Kay, Kathleen Kroeger, Judith Meinert, Janice Noeller, Carol Kreiter, Janice Doerscher, Carol McConnell, Betty Lively, Pat Dreuter, Viola Kundel, Nancy Jo Schneckloth, Marlene Meyer, Janet Jugenheimer, Barbara Wilkerson, Betty Kuehl, Donna Litscher, Verna Claussen, Mary Ann Oelerich, Shirley Oelerich, Helen Kuehl, Mrs. Marvin Seward, Elaine Voss, Sharon O'Brien, Karen Siemsen, Dianne Berodt, Virjean Lund, Jean Greve, Joanne Freund, Ruth Ann Watkins, Shirley Olson, Luann Drumm, Janet Quistorf, Karol Mumm, Beverly Sievers, Janet Miller, Joan Stuhr, Lois Arp, Joanne Steele, Lila McConnell, Mrs. Harry McConnell, Mrs. Ben Litscher, Virginia Ray, Helena Dillger.

Grandchildren of Mrs. Brus Win Cash for Best Float

Blue Grass, Ia.—Four thousand persons—the largest crowd ever to attend a local homecoming—witnessed the parade and other features of the 1951 gathering.

Sixteen grandchildren of Mrs. Lena Brus, in uniforms of the service forces, appeared on the float, "God Bless America," which won top honors in the parade. The Buffalo Busy Bees 4-H club won second and the Blue Grass Civic league, third honors. An honor guard from the Marshall Brown Post, American Legion, Davenport, the local Legion and the Buffalo VFW, headed the march. The Durant high school band and drum and bugle corps of the local VFW and auxiliary furnished music for the day. There were other games and contests during the afternoon and concession stands did a record business.

Receipts from the event go into a fund to finance various community projects.

CHANGE DATE FOR K. C. CIRCUS TO AVOID CONFLICT

In order that the appearance of Jay Gould's "Free" circus in Davenport next month will not conflict with the Mississippi Valley fair exposition, the circus management and officials of the Knights of Columbus lodge of Davenport have changed the circus schedule.

Originally, the circus was slated to exhibit on the Davenport levee showgrounds Sunday, Aug. 19, the last day of the fair.

However, the circus dates have been changed to Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 20 and 21.

LUCILLE REA TO CONDUCT TAILORING SCHOOL IN MARCH

Miss Lucille Rea, Clothing Specialist of Iowa State College Extension staff, selects materials carefully and checks labels before buying.

For the past month, the rural women have been cautioned to watch labels on yardage and ready-to-wear before buying.

The women have been seeing samples of new materials and new finishes put on well-known fabrics, shown by Miss Helena Dilger, County Extension Home Economist. Read the labels so that you will know what fabrics and finishes you are paying for, the care to give the material and the wear that you can expect from it. Read the labels carefully, whether you buy yardage or ready-to-wear, she cautioned.

This lesson was in preparation for the tailoring training school to be conducted by Miss Lucille Rea, Clothing Specialist of Iowa State College.

Meetings will be held March 6, 7 and 14th — at the Lend-A-Hand Club in Davenport, beginning at 10:00 o'clock each morning.

Each day will be different and Miss Rea will demonstrate on a garment to illustrate certain points in tailoring.

The meeting is limited to two leaders from a township who will go back and present the tailoring lessons to their township rural women's groups and 4-H girls.

4-H GIRLS ENJOY TOUR

Seventy-two girls, Mothers and leaders enjoyed the educational tour to Chicago Friday and Saturday, November 28th and November 29th. When asked what they liked best some of the girls said that they enjoyed going thru the DC-C large airliner at the airport. The girls got to see the family cabin, the drawing room and the kitchen, cloak room and cockpit of the 58 passenger plane. The cockpit was covered with buttons and dials over the entire ceiling and front. The floor had numerous pedals. Radio and radar systems extended back beyond the cockpit.

The girls then visited the Museum of Science and Industry. Colleen Moore's doll house was enjoyed by all of the girls. The Christmas trees of the different nations were just being decorated but several were complete. The girls also visited the farm at the Museum, streets of yesteryear, plastics and then saw themselves on television.

The girls boarded the elevated train near the museum and from the squeals of delight this was much enjoyed. The elevated train then goes into the subway and this took them to the door of Marshall Fields.

The girls were divided into squads of 7 girls per leader and these girls were taken thru the stores together to enjoy the Christmas decorations.

That evening the girls enjoyed a Musical Comedy. Alberta Porter and Marian Fahrenkrog went back stage and had their programs autographed by Joan Blondell.

The experience of staying in a hotel was new to some of the girls.

The following morning the girls were taken on a tour of the Naval Armory and the U. S. S. Daniel A Day destroyer escort. The girls were shown the various guns and gunnery stations, how the ship is navigated and controlled, the sleeping quarters, sick bay, kitchens on galley, and dining rooms. They were shown four decks. The girls felt that they know a little more about what is expected of the boys in the Navy.

Quite a contrast to the gray destroyer escort was the Mum show at Garfield Park. The mums were in all of their glory as well as the begoonias and orchids. However, the travelers tree came into its share of glory for the girls. Its a species of tropical palm. One long leaf and stem when cut will yield about a quart of water even in the direst weather for the thirsty traveler.

The International livestock exposition was next visited by the girls who got to see some Iowa 4-H calves place 2nd in a group of 3, Linn County calf placed first, Clinton 2nd and Cedar 3rd. The climax of the trip came with dinner with all the trimmings at the Old Spinning Wheel. The girls saw the antique doll collection and old china.

These tired but happy girls and leaders returned Saturday evening: Mrs. Arthur Schaeffer, Ida Schaeffer, Dona Schaeffer, Mrs. Harold Jugenheimer, Marilyn Jugenheimer, Mrs. Alvin Kay, Joanne Kay, Sandra Kay, Marian Fahrenkrog, Ruth Geest, Darlene Pietzanka, Mrs. Helmuth Schaeffer, Joan Schaeffer, Beverly Holdorf, Doris Kardel, Karen Westhoff, Phyllis Brus, Elaine Roggenkamp, Dorothy Hoffman, Doroht Quistorf, Mrs. Carl Spring, Connie Spring, Patty Fennimore, Dona Siebert, Marilyn Siemsen, Virlee Lund, Mary Greve, Alberta Porter, Nancy Moeller, Virginia Kay, Kathleen Kroeger, Judith Meinert, Janice Noeller, Carol Kreiter, Janice Doerscher, Carol McConnell, Betty Lively, Pat Dreuter, Viola Kundel, Nancy Jo Schneckloth, Marlene Meyer, Janet Jugenheimer, Barbara Wilkerson, Betty Kuehl, Donna Litscher, Verna Claussen, Mary Ann Oelerich, Shirley Oelerich, Helen Kuehl, Mrs. Marvin Seward, Elaine Voss, Sharon O'Brien, Karen Siemsen, Dianne Berodt, Virjean Lund, Jean Greve, Joanne Freund, Ruth Ann Watkins, Shirley Olson, Luann Drumm, Janet Quistorf, Karol Mumm, Beverly Sievers, Janet Miller, Joan Stuhr, Lois Arp, Joanne Steele, Lila McConnell, Mr. Harry McConnell, Mrs. Ben Ischer, Virginia Ray, Helena Isger.

45 4-H Girls Will Act As Hostesses

Each year the furniture stores of Davenport, and the department stores carrying furniture and equipment, have a fall show. This open house will be held tonight, September 25, and these stores will be open and present what's new in furniture and equipment.

45 4-H girls have been invited by the merchants holding open house to serve as hostesses. These girls will be on hand to give you a hearty greeting and welcome you at the store. Last year, one of the girls pleased the manager of a local store that he asked her to come to his store when she would be ready to work.

The girls are entertained with a dinner at the Chamber of Commerce preceding the open house, and receive a corsage.

Girls selected for the Chamber of Commerce were based on age, whether they had served before, years in club work and county officers. It is hoped that each girl may enjoy this experience.

Following is the list of girls: Mary Ann Sidlinger, Mary Lively, Betty Lively, Darlene Hamann, Lois Arp, Janet Quistorf, Karol Mumm, Verna Claussen, Shirley Oelerich, Patricia Dreter, Marguerite Schultz, Patty Ann Fenimore, June Ann Runge, Barbara Porter, Dorothy Mae Helble, Roberta Fletcher, Carol McConnell, Carol Seward, Gloria Ash, Lorna Arp, Dorella Arp, Shirley Ann Schneekloth, Virjean Lund, Dorothy Hoffman, Mary Lou Rock, Barbara Wilkerson, Elaine Roggenkamp, Ruth Geest, Jean Gerischer, Luella Schaeffer, Jo Ellen Dodds, Phyllis Jean Lineburg, Marian Ehlers, Nancy Litterel, Elaine Witte, Phyllis Kahler, Betty Ann Luedtke, Arlene Brix, Carol Sindt, Joyce Elaine Musal, Janet Arp, Joanne Brockmann, Maxine Stuhr, Marilyn De Wulf, Darlene Brus.

4-H Girl's Exhibits Praised By Judge

Miss Opal Robertson, clothing specialist, Extension Service, Iowa State College, who judged the clothing exhibits of the 4-H girls at the Mississippi Valley Fair commented that she would like to make many more entries than are allowed at the Iowa State Fair, because of the high quality of the workmanship. This speaks well for the very fine leadership and committee people, and co-operation of the parents, in having the girls turn out this quality of work. There was quality in the exhibits, but there was also quantity. This was the largest clothing exhibit that the girls of Scott County had ever had on display.

Merchants in the county cooperated by giving figures and mannequins to the girls on which they might display their garments, and these have been given to them permanently.

4-H girls' clubs all over Scott County are busily helping their team members prepare their demonstration for the Mississippi Valley Fair. All girls are asked to bring any clippings or pamphlets that they might have that would pertain to the demonstration for their club.

Joyce LaFrenz and Helen Hoffman will represent the Allens Grove Tri Mu Club. These girls selected to make a dress from a colored percale bed sheet. The large width makes it possible to have very few seams in the dress; this also makes it possible to make the dress in a very short time.

Buffalo Busy Bees will be represented by Vanita and Arlene LaFrenz. These girls chose to show how to care and press clothing. The girls will demonstrate on velvet, velveteen, corduroy, and many other materials that are difficult to handle. They will also show the use of the seam roll and the tailor's cushion and will make these in their demonstration.

Maxine Baughman and Janice Lineburg of the Butler Wide Awakes Club chose accessories as their demonstration. These girls will show the making of a hat, a purse, and a little cape-like collar.

Cleona Clover Leaves will be represented by Phyllis Kahler and Betty Luedtke. These girls have also chosen a basic dress and accessories as their demonstration. They have a very clever basic dress with many button-on accessories.

Carol Sindt and Janet Waage chose selection of shoes and care of the feet as their demonstration. These girls will represent the Davenport Sunbeams Club. They will make your feet feel like new if you will follow their advice.

Making dusters will be shown by Mary Sidlinger and Mary Lively of LeClaire Boosters Club. The girls will demonstrate the making of a duster which is suitable to wear as a dress, might also be used as a topper, and can also be used as a little housecoat or brunch coat. The girls will show some clever little slippers to match the duster.

Darlene Hamann and Delores Fellner of the Liberty Bell Ringers Club will also show some accessories entirely different from the other demonstrations.

Roma and Roberta Kirby are going to show the making of some very fine fitting work aprons. These girls will represent the Lincoln Go Getters Club.

Donna Seibert and Marguerite Schultz, representing Pleasant Valley Township and the Belmont Busy Bees, are going to make a simple blouse.

Patty Doyle and Sharon Graham who are ten year olds, are going to make a gattered skirt in their demonstration; these girls will represent the Princeton Livewires Club.

There are still other demonstration teams to be announced. Demonstration day will be Friday, August 15th, at the exhibit hall of Starlight Ballroom. You will want to come early Friday and stay all day.

TEAM SCHEDULE

Scott County 4-H Girls In Valley Fair Spotlight

Selection of a Scott county 4-H girls' demonstration team to represent the county at the Iowa State fair highlighted the girls' 4-H club activities Friday. Selected for the honor, and an all expense trip to Des Moines awarded by the Morning Democrat, were Mary Lou Lively and Mary Ann Sidlinger, members of the LeClaire Boosters girls' 4-H club. They will compete in the state demonstration contest to be held during the state fair. Their demonstration, "Rise and Shine in a Duster," showed the proper method of making this garment which is gaining in popularity over the country.

The reserve champion team honors went to Janet Waage and Carol Sindt, of the Davenport Sunbeams club, on the demonstration, "Fit Feet Step Happily." They will represent the county in the demonstration contest at the Waterloo Dairy Cattle Congress. Selected as an alternate demonstration team was the team from the Buffalo Busy Bees girls' 4-H club composed of Arline and Vanita Lafrenz, on their blue ribbon demonstration, "Easy Care — Joy to Wear."

Other blue ribbon teams were: Maxine Baughman and Phyllis Lineburg of the Butler Wideawakes on "Accessory Change Abouts"; and Mary Kuehl and Sandra Moore, Winfield Wo-He-Lo club, on the demonstration, "Sewing Can Be Fun."

Other teams competing in the contest and their placings were: Roma and Roberta Kirby, Lincoln Go Getters, red; Betty Luedtke and Phyllis Kahler, Cleona Clover Leaves, red; Virginia Kay and Carol Kreiter, Sheridan Hustlers, red; Darlene Hamann and Delores Fellner, Liberty Bell Ringers, white; Patty Fennimore and Marguerita Schultz, Belmont Busy Bees, white.

In the division for junior girls the team composed of Sharon Graham and Patty Doyle, of the Princeton Live Wires rated a blue ribbon, and Karen O'Brien and Elaine Voss, of the Rockingham Merry Maids, were awarded a red ribbon.

Girls' 4-H activities at the fair will come to a close today with the style revue scheduled this afternoon. The winner will represent the county at the state fair.

Scheduled in front of the grandstand this afternoon is the 250-lap stock car race. This promises to provide thrills galore for the large crowd which is expected to nearly fill the huge grandstand.

The night program will again feature two performances by Ernie Young's State Fair Revue, and the same show will climax the fair Sunday night, the final day.

Sunday afternoon promises to attract hundreds of horse lovers from eastern Iowa and western Illinois for the trail ride and stock horse round-up. Frank Carsten, who is in charge of this phase of the program, promises many novel stunts for the program. Elimination trials will start at 9 a.m. Sunday.

Another feature of Sunday's program will be the appearance of eight candidates for Bennett Fall Festival Queen. They will be guests of the Mississippi Valley fair during the day, and will be introduced to the crowd in the grandstand during the afternoon program.

The 4-H Girls' demonstration teams will appear on Friday, August 15th, beginning at 9:00 A. M.

Following is the schedule of demonstrations:

CLUB and COUNTY MEETINGS
1950

BEFORE AND AFTER—Scott county 4-H girls who are studying home furnishings as their project this year, are surprising even themselves with their ability to rebuild discarded furniture. Such was the case of Jean Gerischer, a member of the Buffalo Busy Bees girls' 4-H club. The reason is shown in the accompanying pictures. The picture above shows an old settee which had been discarded by the family, and had been stored in a shed on the Gerischer farm. Jean took the old piece to a county-wide meeting this spring when the picture was taken. The picture below shows the same settee as Jean was nearing the work of reupholstering it. The material for the job cost less than $30. The finished settee will be shown by Jean as part of the girls' 4-H exhibit at the Mississippi Valley Fair next month.

Brina Scheele, Native of Holland, Studies 4-H And Farm Women's Activities in Scott County

"Girls' 4-H club work in the United States is quite a bit different than it is in my native country, Holland," Miss Brina Scheele, who is spending six months in the United States as a part of the rural women's exchange program, and who attended a meeting of the Sheridan Hustlers' girls 4-H club at the home of Jeanette Keppy Saturday afternoon, said in an interview with The Democrat farm editor.

"While we have 4-H clubs in Holland, the girls do not carry on the extensive project work that the girls of the United States do. Our girls hold meetings and listen to lectures, but do not carry on such projects as home furnishings, sewing, or food preparation. And only about eight or 10 per cent of the girls in Holland belong to the organization."

Miss Scheele is a 4-H club member in Holland. She arrived in the United States about a week and a half ago and early last week came to Scott county where she is staying at the Errett Calderwood home in Sheridan township. She will also spend some time at the Harry Hahn home in Hickory Grove township.

Miss Scheele's home is on a 250-acre farm near Rotterdam, Holland. She is a home economists instructor, and hopes to be able to use some of the ideas picked up in this country when she returns to Holland to carry on her teaching duties. She has somewhat the same duties as extension home economists in this country, working with groups of women who wish to learn more about proper methods of cooking and house-keeping. She is employed by the Dutch government and co-operates with the Farm Bureau organization there in carrying on her work.

Crops grown on her father's farm include wheat, sugar beets and potatoes. Two tractors are used in doing the farm work, but horses still play an important part on the farms. Mechanization of farms has progressed much faster in the United States than in Holland, according to Miss Scheele, and because the Dutch farm every inch of the soil much more hand labor is required.

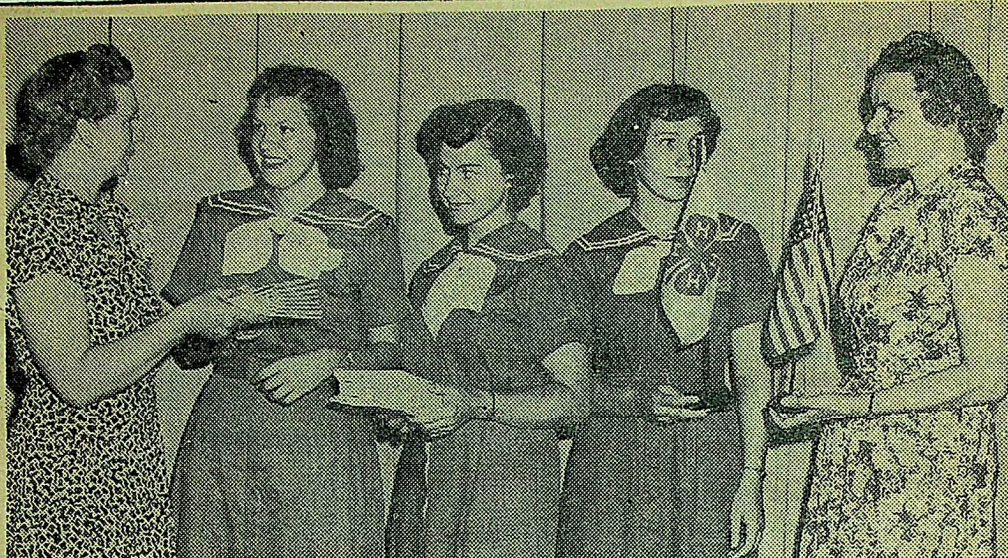

In response to questions regarding her impressions of the United States, Miss Scheele said that she was amazed at the number of automobiles owned by the Americans, in comparison to the extensive use of bicycles in her own country. She was also amazed at the tall buildings in New York. Another thing that impresses the visitor is the fact that the people of the United States do as they please pretty much when they please.

"I was also surprised to find that the people of the United States are no different than the people of Holland," Miss Scheele said. "They have the same desires and think along the same lines. It seems that all people think that people of other nations are different until they really get a chance to know them."

The international situation is also worrying the people of Holland, according to Miss Scheele, who said that her people have more to worry about because they are only three or four hours away from Berlin. "However, we are looking to the United States for help in case trouble comes," she added.

AWARD WINNERS OF CONTESTS—Presidents of the clubs that were winners of the music and picture recognition contests held at the rally day were awarded prizes in behalf of the club as the climax to the contests. Pictured above Mrs. Alfred Spies (left), presenting song books to Jeanette Keppy, president of the Sheridan Hustlers, and Ruth Scherer, president of the Buffalo Busy Bees, as first place winners in the music recognition contest; and Mrs. Harold Jugenheimer (right) is presenting a set of flags to Inez Wolf, president of the Princeton Livewires club, winners of the picture recognition contest.

MISS DILGER HONORED AT RALLY DAY—Highlighting the Scott county girls' 4-H rally day held Wednesday at Washington school was the initiation of Miss Helen Dilger, Scott county home economist, as an honorary 4-H club member, with members of the Cleona Clover Leaves in charge of the ceremony. Pictured above as the 4-H club pin was presented to Miss Dilger are (left to right) Darlene Telsrow, secretary; Joyce Ruser, historian; Miss Dilger; Nelda Witte, president; Marilyn Telsrow, reporter, and Roberta Mumm, vice president. SURE, YOU QUOTE ME SOME STATISTIC ABOUT HOW WOMEN DO 35 HOURS OF HOUSEWORK A WEEK AND MEN DO ONLY 7, BUT I'LL JUST BET THAT HUSBANDS OF EMPLOYED WOMEN DO A LOT MORE THAN HUSBANDS OF WOMEN WHO ARE HOME.

TEN MINUTES A DAY MORE.

YOU'VE GOT AN ANSWER FOR EVERYTHING, DON'T YOU.

IF I DID, I WOULDN'T BE THE ONE DOING 35 HOURS OF HOUSEWORK A WEEK.
